

Traveling Without Your Pets

Contributed by Beate

What are you doing when you go on a trip and your pets have to stay back? Are you asking a neighbor or relatives to come to your home and take care off your pets while you are gone? Or are you dropping your furry kids off in the closest kennel and leaving them sad eyed, wondering what is happening to them? Is this really what you want and have you ever thought about what happens when the neighbor has a personal emergency to take care off and won't be able to keep his promise any longer. Although Kennels are in business of providing care for your pets there are certainly risks involved which I would not take for my own pets.

Have you thought aboutt hiring a professional Pet Sitting company which is certified, bonded and insured for your peace of mind and has a great system in place so your pets will always taken care off?

Ask The Purrfect Nanny in Atlanta, GA. This great team of Pet Professionals will be glad to answer all your questions about in home Pet Sitting and Equine Farm Sitting in and around Atlanta.

Here are 7 great reasons to call The Purrfect Nanny for your next trip:

- Your pets are happier & more comfortable in their own home environment instead of being left in an unfamiliar place.
- Your pets are able to play and sleep in their accustomed places with familiar smells and sights.
- We provide daily exercise to keep your pet fit and healthy during your absence.
- Keeping your pet home takes away the hassle of transporting your pet to and from a kennel.
- There is no exposure to other animals, disease or parasites.
- Relatives, friends or neighbors will not be inconvenienced by your pet and the additional responsibilities.
- Gives you peace of mind, knowing that your pet will be cared for and your house will be looked after while you are away by a professional pet sitter.
